Benefits of Brookfield Parent Teacher Association (PTA) Membership

The Brookfield PTA supports our children and teachers by providing funding for:

- Class Field Trips
- Student Assemblies
- Parent Resource Center
- Classroom Equipment
- Teacher Development
- School Newsletter – Babble
- Student Training (Patrols and Student Council)
- Sixth Grade Graduation Party
- Field Day
- Computers/Software for classrooms
- Teacher Appreciation
- Family Fun: Fall Festival, Bingo Night, Movie Night, International Night, Talent Show

The Brookfield PTA also supports our children by providing volunteer services for:

- After school programs, such as Mad Science, Abrakadoodle and Chess Club
- Student enrichment programs such as the Science Fair and PTA Reflections program
- School supply orders for the beginning for the school year
- Yearbooks for students to remember their school year
- School information – communicated through the newsletter (Babble), PTA email distribution, and correspondence sent home in Tuesday folders

The Brookfield PTA serves as an organization to:

- Communicate with Brookfield administration and staff.
- Identify and understand issues affecting our children
- Organize and collectively voice our opinions to the School Board
- Organize and utilize our various talents to enhance our children's education

Where do your Brookfield PTA membership dues go?

- The National PTA receives $2.25, to support national initiatives and legislative efforts relating to public education
- The Virginia State PTA receives $1.00 to support state initiatives and legislative efforts relating to public education
- The remainder of your dues stays at Brookfield Elementary School, supporting our children and teachers
- The PTA is a non-profit organization

As a member of the Brookfield PTA you will:

- Hold voting privileges – vote on PTA budget and program matters, PTA by-laws and PTA officers
- Get connected to a wide network of active parents and teachers at Brookfield Elementary School
- Receive a school directory listing students and contact information
- Receive a calendar with information about important school and PTA events
- Receive information through PTA email distributions
- Access to National PTA, State and County Web site and other resources

The Brookfield PTA can only continue to offer its support to our students with the help of concerned and dedicated families like you! Please join us!
